Briefing

October 5, 1978

Admiral Stansfield Turner, USN
Director of Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Stan:

Thank you so much for breakfast this morning. I find those sessions extremely helpful, as do each of the Senators in attendance, and they so commented to me. It was good of you, and of Frank, to take the time to meet with us.

I'm not sure that having so few Senators in attendance makes it worth your while. If we did it again, I'd like to be able to get at least 7 or 8 to come so that you could get to know more of them in the limited time you have available. One thought might be to assemble the Senators here in the Capitol and try to persuade you to come to breakfast with us. If you have any thoughts on this, let me know.

Your breakfasts are delicious (a lot better than those in the Capitol).

Warm best wishes to you and Pat.

Sincerely yours,

John H. Chafee
